According to the latest reports, the film titled "Aaj jana aap jo aap jo anur hain ki aur unna tha ke baat hoon" ("I am coming for your heart and it is my pleasure") has started to win over film-makers around the world, but the biggest disappointment here are the scenes where it is about the sex scene with the main girl. "Aajjao tha kya koi (I will eat it up)" is not only the sex scene in the movie, it is also an introduction of the character of Raja, who takes over for the main girl, in the role of the villain. "I thought if people are not looking forward to it then it is because the title makes it difficult," filmmaker Arora said. The movie is based on the novel "Mahant ka baat hain" by Dr Ashish Shekhar. The film stars Shah Rukh Khan, Aamir Khan, Sanjay Leela Bhansali and Manoj Kutch, with an ensemble featuring Veena Joshi and M.A.C. Khan..
